

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 15, 1962

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

TEXT OF A JOINT COMMUNIQUE BY THE
PRESIDENT AND HIS EXCELLENCY AHMED
BEN BELLA, PRIME MINISTER OF THE DEMO-CRATIC and POPULAR REPUBLIC OF ALGERIA
FOLLOWING DISCUSSIONS HELD IN WASHINGTON,
D.C., OCTOBER 15, 1962

His Excellency Ahmed Ben Bella, Prime Minister of the Democratic and Popular Republic of Algeria and President Kennedy met for a discussion and lunch at the White House today.

The President took the occasion of Prime Minister Ben Bella's presence at the United Nations to invite him to be his guest so that they might become acquainted and review problems of common interest.

President Kennedy told the Prime Minister of his personal interest and that of the people of the United States in the future of an independent Algeria, and expressed best wishes to the Prime Minister on Algeria's admission to the United Nations. He also explained the principles of United States foreign policy.

The Prime Minister discussed the problems of his country and explained the principles of Algeria's foreign policy. There was a useful and cordial exchange of views on aspects of the international situation. President Kennedy and the Prime Minister stated their hopes for a close and continuing friendship between the two countries.

#